Introduction

This plan sets out the work for the 2011/12 audit. It uses the Audit Commission's risk-based approach to audit planning.

Responsibilities

The Audit Commission's Statement of Responsibilities of Auditors and of Audited Bodies sets out the respective responsibilities of the auditor and the audited body. The Audit Commission has issued a copy of the Statement to you.

The Statement summarises where the different responsibilities of auditors and of the audited body begin and end. I undertake my work to meet them.

I comply with the statutory requirements governing my audit work, in particular:

- the Audit Commission Act 1998; and
- the Code of Audit Practice for local government bodies.

My audit does not relieve management or the Audit & Corporate Governance Committee, as those charged with governance, of their responsibilities.

Accounting statements and Whole of Government Accounts

I will carry out the audit of the accounting statements in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board (APB). I must issue an audit report giving my opinion on whether the accounts give a true and fair view.

Materiality

I will apply the concept of materiality in planning and performing my audit, in evaluating the effect of any identified misstatements, and in forming my opinion.

Identifying audit risks

I need to understand the Authority to identify any risk of material misstatement (from either fraud or error) in the accounting statements. I do this by:

- identifying the business risks you face, including assessing your own risk management arrangements;
- considering your financial performance;
- assessing internal control, including reviewing the control environment, the IT control environment and internal audit; and
- assessing the risk of material misstatement arising from the activities and controls in your information systems.

Identification of specific audit risks

I have considered the additional risks relevant to the audit of the accounting statements and set them out below.

Table 1: Specific audit risks

Risk	Audit response
Icelandic banks The Council had deposits of £2.5M with an Icelandic bank, (Kaupthing, Singer and Friedlander), when it collapsed. It had invested the money in 2007 in line with its treasury management policy before any warnings about Icelandic banks arose. I need to ensure that proper accounting treatment and disclosures are made.	I will assess how much you estimate you will be able to recover from your investments in Icelandic banks. I will also test that the disclosure in the financial statements is correct.
Payroll The Payroll service is to be fully outsourced to Capita in February 2012.	I will undertake a review of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • contractual arrangements, including internal audit coverage, and management controls such as monthly review of financial performance;. • management oversight of reconciliations between expected information from the service organisation and actuals, including exception reports; • tests of detail, for example sample checking of items of account produced by the service organisation to source documentation.

Testing strategy

Based on risks identified above I will produce a testing strategy which will consist of testing key controls and/or substantive tests of transaction streams and material account balances at year end.

My testing can be carried out both before and after the draft financial statements have been produced (pre- and post-statement testing) and involves:

- review and re-performance of work of your internal auditors;
- testing of the operation of controls;
- reliance on the work of other auditors;
- reliance on the work of experts; and
- substantive tests of detail of transactions and amounts.

I aim to:

- rely as much as possible on the work of your internal auditors, subject to review and re-performance; and
- do as much work as I can before you prepare your accounting statements.

The nature and timing of my proposed work is as follows.

Table 2: Proposed work

Timing	Review of internal audit	Controls testing	Reliance on the work of other auditors	Reliance on work of experts	Substantive testing
Interim visit	All financial systems - I will seek to use the work of Internal Audit for walkthroughs of all financial systems and controls testing where appropriate.	General Ledger; Accounts Payable; Accounts Receivable; Payroll. Walkthrough testing of: Treasury Management; NNDR; Council Tax; Housing Benefits; Service Organisations	None	None	I have not currently identified any specific substantive testing at this stage, but will seek to bring forward testing where possible.
Final visit	Review of any relevant Internal Audit work	None	Pensions assets and liabilities – auditor to Oxfordshire County Council Pension Fund	Pensions assets and liabilities – Barnett Waddingham and our own consulting actuary. Valuation of property, plant and equipment – reliance on your external valuers Cluttons LLP, and our own independent valuer.	All material accounts balances and amounts Year-end feeder system reconciliations

I will agree with you a schedule of working papers to support the entries in the accounting statements.

Whole of Government Accounts

Alongside my work on the accounting statements, I will also review and report to the National Audit Office (NAO) on your Whole of Government Accounts return. The NAO specify the extent of my review and the nature of my report.

Value for money

I must reach a conclusion on your arrangements to secure economy, efficiency and effectiveness.

My conclusion on your arrangements is based on two criteria, specified by the Commission. These relate to your arrangements for:

- securing financial resilience – focusing on whether you are managing financial risks to secure a stable financial position for the foreseeable future; and
- challenging how you secure economy, efficiency and effectiveness – focusing on whether you are prioritising resources within tighter budgets and improving productivity and efficiency.

Identification of significant risks

I will undertake my risk assessment for the value for money conclusion later in the year. I will discuss it with you when I have done so.

Key milestones and deadlines

The Authority must prepare accounting statements by 30th June 2012. I aim to complete my work and issue my opinion and value for money conclusion by 30 September 2012.

Table 3: Proposed timetable and planned outputs

Independence and quality

Independence

I comply with the ethical standards issued by the APB and with the Commission's additional requirements for independence and objectivity as summarised in appendix 1.

Auditing and ethical standards require me to report to you relationships which may affect my independence and objectivity, or those of the Audit Commission or the audit team. I am not aware of any.

Quality of service

I aim to provide you with a fully satisfactory audit service. However, if you are unable to deal with any difficulty through me and my team, please contact Chris Westwood, Director – Standards & Technical, Audit Practice, Audit Commission, 1st Floor, Millbank Tower, Millbank, London SW1P 4HQ (c-westwood@audit-commission.gov.uk) who will look into any complaint promptly and to do what he can to resolve the position.

If you are still not satisfied, you may of course take up the matter with the Audit Commission's Complaints Investigation Officer (The Audit Commission, Westward House, Lime Kiln Close, Stoke Gifford, Bristol BS34 8SR).

Fees

The fee for the audit is £105,580 as set out in my letter of 5th April 2011

The audit fee

The Audit Commission has set a scale audit fee of £105,580 which represents a five per cent reduction on the audit fee for 2010/11.

The scale fee covers:

- my audit of your accounting statements and reporting on the Whole of Government Accounts return; and
- my work on reviewing your arrangements for securing economy, efficiency and effectiveness in your use of resources.

The scale fee reflects:

- the Audit Commission's decision not to increase fees in line with inflation;
- a reduction resulting from the new approach to local VFM audit work; and
- a reduction following the one-off work caused by the adoption of International Financing Reporting Standards (IFRS).

Variations from the scale fee only occur where my assessments of audit risk and complexity differ significantly from those reflected in the 2010/11 fee. I have not identified significant differences and have therefore set your fee at the scale fee.

Assumptions

In setting the fee, I have made the assumptions set out in Appendix 2. Where these assumptions are not met, I may need to undertake more work, which may increase the audit fee. Where this is the case, I will discuss this first with the Strategic Director Finance, and I will issue a supplement to the plan to explain any revisions to the risk and the fee impact.

Specific actions you could take to reduce your audit fee

The Audit Commission requires me to inform you of specific actions you could take to reduce your audit fee. I will work with staff to identify these and to provide ongoing audit support and recommendations for improvement.

Total fees payable

As well as the fee for the audit, the Audit Commission charges for:

- certifying claims and returns; and
- where I have agreed to provide non-audit services under the Audit Commission's advice and assistance powers.

Based on current plans the fees are as follows.

Table 5: Fees

	2011/12 proposed	2010/11 actual	Variance
Audit	£105,580	£111,137	£5,557
Certification of claims and returns	£33,200	£35,000*	£1,800
Non-audit work	£0	£0	£0
Total	£138,780	£146,137	£7,357

* The planned fee for 2010/11 for grant work was £35,000 as set out in my fees letter of 5 April 2011, the scale fee set for 2011/12 is based on this fee. Grants work is charged based on the time taken to do the work and for 2010/11 the time taken was less than planned and therefore the final fee actually charged for 2010/11 was £26,048.

Appendix 1 – Independence and objectivity

Auditors appointed by the Audit Commission must comply with the Commission’s Code of Audit Practice and Standing Guidance for Auditors. When auditing the accounting statements, auditors must also comply with professional standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board (APB). These impose stringent rules to ensure the independence and objectivity of auditors. The Audit Practice puts in place robust arrangements to ensure compliance with these requirements, overseen by the Audit Practice’s Director – Standards and Technical, who serves as the Audit Practice’s Ethics Partner.

Table 6: Independence and objectivity

Area	Requirement	How we comply
Business, employment and personal relationships	Appointed auditors and their staff should avoid any official, professional or personal relationships which may, or could reasonably be perceived to, cause them inappropriately or unjustifiably to limit the scope, extent or rigour of their work or impair the objectivity of their judgement. The appointed auditor and senior members of the audit team must not take part in political activity for a political party, or special interest group, whose activities relate directly to the functions of local government or NHS bodies in general, or to a particular local government or NHS body.	All audit staff must declare all potential threats to independence. Details of declarations are made available to appointed auditors. Where appropriate, staff are excluded from engagements or safeguards introduced to reduce the threat to an acceptably low level.

Area	Requirement	How we comply
Long association with audit clients	The appointed auditor responsible for the audit should, in all but the most exceptional circumstances, be changed at least once every seven years, with additional consideration of threats to independence after five years.	The Audit Practice maintains and monitors a central database of auditor and senior audit staff assignments.
Gifts and hospitality	The appointed auditor and members of the audit team must abide by the Commission's policy on gifts, hospitality and entertainment.	All audit staff must declare any gifts or hospitality, whether or not accepted. They may only be accepted with line manager approval.
Non-audit work	Appointed auditors should not perform additional work for an audited body (that is work above the minimum required to meet their statutory responsibilities) if it would compromise their independence or might result in a reasonable perception that their independence could be compromised. Auditors should not accept engagements that involve commenting on the performance of other auditors appointed by the Commission on Commission work without first consulting the Commission. Work over a specified value must only be undertaken with the prior approval of the Audit Commission's Director of Audit Policy and Regulation.	All proposed additional work is subject to review and approval by the appointed auditor and the Director – Standards and Technical, to ensure independence is not compromised.

Code of Audit Practice, Audit Commission Standing Guidance and APB Ethical Standards

Appendix 2 – Basis for fee

In setting the fee, I have assumed the following.

- The risk to the audit of the accounting statements is not significantly different from that identified for 2010/11. For example:
 - internal controls are operating effectively;
 - I secure the co-operation of other auditors;

- The risk to my value for money responsibilities is not significantly different from that identified for 2010/11.
- Internal Audit meets professional standards.
- Internal Audit undertakes enough work on all systems providing material figures in the accounting statements for me to rely on it.
- The Authority provides:
 - good quality working papers and records to support the accounting statements and the text of the other information to be published with the statements by 30th June 2012;
 - other information requested within agreed timescales;
 - prompt responses to draft reports; and
- there are no questions asked or objections made by local government electors.

Where these assumptions are not met, more work will be necessary, which is likely to mean an increased audit fee.

Appendix 3 – Glossary

Auditing standards

Pronouncements of the APB containing basic principles and essential procedures with which auditors must comply, except where otherwise stated in the auditing standard concerned.

Auditor(s)

Internal control

The whole system of controls, financial and otherwise, that the Authority establishes to provide reasonable assurance of effective and efficient operations, internal financial control and compliance with laws and regulations.

Materiality

The APB defines this concept as ‘an expression of the relative significance or importance of a particular matter in the context of the accounting statements as a whole. A matter is material if its omission would reasonably influence the decisions of an addressee of the auditor’s report; likewise a misstatement is material if it would have a similar influence. Materiality may also be considered in the context of any individual primary statement within the accounting statements or of individual items included in them. Materiality is not capable of general mathematical definition, as it has both qualitative and quantitative aspects’.

The term ‘materiality’ applies only to the accounting statements. Auditors appointed by the Commission have responsibilities and duties under statute, as well as their responsibility to give an opinion on the accounting statements, which do not necessarily affect their opinion on the accounting statements.

Significance

The concept of ‘significance’ applies to these wider responsibilities. Auditors adopt a level of significance which may differ from the materiality level applied to their audit of the accounting statements. Significance has both qualitative and quantitative aspects.

Those charged with governance

Those entrusted with the supervision, control and direction of the Authority. This term includes the members of the Authority and its Audit Committee.

Whole of Government Accounts

A project leading to a set of consolidated accounts for the entire UK public sector on commercial accounting principles. The Authority must submit a consolidation pack to the department for Communities and Local Government which is based on, but separate from, its accounting statements.
