7 Performance and development review of the chief executive

The committee undertook the annual appraisal of Mark Stone, Chief Executive, in accordance with both councils' constitution. Committee members reviewed the development and performance information provided and 360 feedback received from councillors and officers.

Committee members were pleased to note that the chief executive's performance targets set following his permanent appointment had either been met or in some cases exceeded. Committee members referenced evidence that the chief executive had utilised his breadth and depth of knowledge and skillset to address staff morale and general performance and delivery issues. They expressed confidence in Mark Stone's leadership as the councils' chief executive, and supported the direction of travel he was taking the councils in, noting in particular the much stronger focus on, and improvements in, staff morale across the councils.

Members of the committee confirmed that they were content with the objectives the leaders had set the chief executive for the next 12 months, noting that they would inform objective setting for the wider officer group.

The chief executive thanked members for their ongoing support.
