

Across a two year timespan, 4.2% of Major decisions were appealed (national average 3.0%).
The rate at which Major decisions were allowed was 0.8% (national average 1.3%).
(Lower is better as national threshold is 10%).

*Appeals data is delayed to allow for appeal proceedings to be completed

Across a two year timespan, 1.5% of Non-Major decisions were appealed (national average 2.3%).
The rate at which Non-Major decisions were allowed was 0.6% (national average 0.7%).
(Lower is better as national threshold is 10%).

*Appeals data is delayed to allow for appeal proceedings to be completed